

The Phantom Returns!

See the phantom attending the opera ball dressed in The Mask of the Red Death!

THE PHANTOM OF THE OPERA featuring the 1925 silent film classic starring Lon Chaney . . . “the man of a thousand faces.” The film is shown on a large screen and accompanied on the organ by Richard Cummins who will improvise (create spontaneously) a new score for this spine-tingler.

Hear the spectacular effect on the organ as the great chandelier of the Opera House crashes to the floor!

Don't forget — be in your seat before 8pm because that's when the lights go out!

By all means come in costume, if you like . . . It's going to be a very spooky evening!

Friday 8p (sharp)

28 October 2011