

Organ Concert

Steven Wooddell

Originally from Roanoke, Virginia, Steven Wooddell began organ studies with Don Moe and shortly before going off to college he also studied with Richard Cummins. He received his Bachelor of Music from The Cleveland Institute of Music, studying with Todd Wilson, and a Master of Organ Performance from Southern Methodist University where his teacher was Larry Palmer. Steven won the 1994 Regional American Guild of Organists Competition in Cincinnati and was awarded recital appearances throughout Ohio and Indiana. He is currently Music Director at First Presbyterian Church, Rome, Georgia.

Steven Wooddell's concert features music of Howells, Duruflé, Messiaen, Bach/Vivaldi, Locklair and Reger.

Sunday at Four

25 March 2012